Definitions

SCNI	means SportCheer NI, the governing body for cheer in NI.
GDPR	means the General Data Protection Regulation.
Responsible Person	means [Alex McVeigh].
Register of Systems	means a register of all systems or contexts in which personal data is processed by the body.

1. Data protection principles

SCNI is committed to processing data in accordance with its responsibilities under the GDPR.

Article 5 of the GDPR requires that personal data shall be:

- a. processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals;
- b. collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes; further processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes shall not be considered to be incompatible with the initial purposes;
- c. adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed;
- d. accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay;
- e. kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed; personal data may be stored for longer periods insofar as the personal data will be processed solely for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes subject to implementation of the appropriate technical and organisational measures required by the GDPR in order to safeguard the rights and freedoms of individuals; and

- f. processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.”

2. General provisions

- a. This policy applies to all personal data processed by the SCNI.
- b. The Responsible Person shall take responsibility for the Charity's ongoing compliance with this policy.
- c. This policy shall be reviewed at least annually.
- d. SCNI shall register with the Information Commissioner's Office as an organisation that processes personal data.

3. Lawful, fair and transparent processing

- a. To ensure its processing of data is lawful, fair and transparent, SCNI shall maintain a Register of Systems.
- b. The Register of Systems shall be reviewed at least annually.
- c. Individuals have the right to access their personal data and any such requests made to the charity shall be dealt with in a timely manner.

4. Lawful purposes

- a. All data processed by SCNI must be done on one of the following lawful bases: consent, contract, legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests.
- b. Where consent is relied upon as a lawful basis for processing data, evidence of opt-in consent shall be kept with the personal data.
- c. Where communications are sent to individuals based on their consent, the option for the individual to revoke their consent will be clearly made available

5. Data minimisation

- a. SCNI shall ensure that personal data are adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed.
- b. Only data that is necessary for the running of SCNI will be processed.

6. Accuracy

- a. SCNI shall take reasonable steps to ensure personal data is accurate.
- b. Where necessary for the lawful basis on which data is processed, steps shall be put in place to ensure that personal data is kept up to date.

7. Archiving / removal

- a. To ensure that personal data is kept for no longer than necessary, the SCNI shall put in place an archiving policy for each area in which personal data is processed and review this process annually.
- b. Each club will be asked annual to provide updated data. Clubs that have not paid membership for the next year at the renewal point will have their data removed from the systems. At such a point if they wish to rejoin they must provide the required data anew.

8. Security

- a. SCNI shall ensure that personal data is stored securely using modern software that is kept-up-to-date. In this case it will be using Microsoft Office, on an Acer Computer with a passcode that only the responsible person has access too.
- b. Paper documents are locked in a secure cabinet at the home address of the responsible person. Only they have access to the key. We will try to avoid using paper documents for security.
- c. Access to personal data shall be limited to personnel who need access and appropriate security should be in place to avoid unauthorised sharing of information.
- d. When personal data is deleted this will be done safely such that the data is irrecoverable.
- e. Appropriate back-up and disaster recovery solutions shall be in place, that is a USB that contains the most up to date version of the club membership, locked in the cabinet for mentioned.

9. Breach

In the event of a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data, SCNI shall promptly assess the risk to people's rights and freedoms and if appropriate report this breach to the ICO (more information on the ICO website).
